For privateers, landing a privatization contract is like winning the lottery, and they'll say or do anything to get a ticket. Sadly, the sleaziest privatization privateers have long been denied the recognition they deserve for their deviousness and dishonesty.

Until now! In the inaugural Privatization Scam of the Year Award, your union wants to recognize the privatization projects into which extra effort was taken in order to take the public to the cleaners.

It's a sleazy pack of nominees:

- Ontario's gas plants
- Edmonton's proposed LRT
- Montreal's new hospital
- CFB Goose Bay's private security force
- Saskatchewan's liquor store giveaway
